REDx TALKS — BUFFALO TREATY

Thursday, September 29 — Doors at 9:30am, show at 10am
Buffalo Nations Luxton Museum — Banff, Alberta

REDx Talks is an Indigenous speaker series that promotes stories of Resilience and Empowerment, while facilitating Discourse (RED) around issues important to Indigenous people around the world. REDx is building a knowledge bundle to be transferred to future generations from every part of the globe.

REDx Talks is an ever-growing community of some of the most influential elders, creatives, thinkers and agents of change on Indigenous and reconciliation issues. REDx Talks offers the opportunity not only to engage with the speakers on the REDx stage, but with the many REDx Ambassadors and community leaders among you in the audience.

REDx Talks: Buffalo Treaty on September 29th is going to be a historic event - preceding the signing and ceremony of the buffalo treaty in the afternoon, REDx Talks will host a full morning of ideas, engagement, Indigenous food, music, art and dialogue, honouring the Indigenous spirit of oral tradition.

In celebration of the second anniversary of the Buffalo Treaty, signed and upheld with the intent to re-introduce free-ranging Buffalo back to their traditional territory.

REDx Talks by:

MARIE EVE MARCHAND, has been working with First Nations, government and stakeholders to bring bison back to Banff National Park since 2009, and is one of the lead supporters of the Buffalo Treaty.
